Dear Students,

Hi, guys! I hope you are safe, healthy, and happy during this tough time. I truly miss seeing you and talking to you about all the happenings at the Academy.

Teaching and learning from home are new concepts to us both, so be patient with me and I'll be patient with you!

For now, this is my plan: Each Monday I will be uploading all assignments for the week and a pacing calendar in Teams. All assignments will be due the following Monday at 8:00 am. Please make sure you're logging in each week to Teams to get your assignments, complete them, and turn them in. Also please make sure you are checking your student e-mail regularly; in case your teachers need to communicate with you.

I will also have "office hours" each week on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 1:00-2:00pm. Office hours will be live on Zoom.com. Of course, if you need something from me at another time, just email me! I'll get back to you ASAP!

I can't wait to see you online, y'all! Keep your chins up and WASH YOUR HANDS! ☺

Love,
Ms. Campbell

Objectives

Objective / I Can:

- I can access Teams, find my assignments, and upload work.
- I can access Zoom. I know how to meet with Ms. Campbell during her office hours.
- I can participate in a digital discussion on Teams.

Activities

LPISD Academy- Forensic Science- Outreach Learning
March 25 - 27, 2020

Student Activities: (Resources, videos for students to use.)

1. Go to Teams for your particular class period. Complete the first assignment titled “Assignment Location” to show that you know how to find your assignments. Open the document, read the question and type your response below. Don’t forget to click the “Turn In” button.
2. Go to www.zoom.com and create an account. Be sure you can access <https://tinyurl.com/mscampbellzoom> This is the link to my personal meeting space, which is where we will be able to video conference when you have questions, or during my office hours. Join my video conference during my conference hours this week to make sure it works on both ends.
3. Go to my FlipGrid and record your response to my check-in question. You can access the flipgrid by visiting this link: <https://flipgrid.com/62dd6f67> or following the QR code below.
